

Please do not do away with the do-not-call list. The telemarketers call you up to nine P.M. and some people do not stay up that late, especially if they are senior citizens. I used to pay for it through the telephone company and now I don't have to.
Thank you,